

Equity & Community Wellbeing Committee

Statement of Interest

The Equity and Community Wellbeing Advisory Committee will provide opportunities for education and knowledge sharing within the membership related to promoting the voices of under-represented individuals and amplify ideas that empower members and communities to thrive. The Committee will endeavour to use collaborative relationships and innovation to enhance the mental health, quality of life, and wellbeing of communities.

Approved by the Board of NSFM on May 8, 2024.