REPORT OF THE 2024 BY-ELECTION NOMINATIONS COMMITTEE

The purpose of this report is to inform the NSFM membership of who has been nominated to fill vacant Regional Representative positions on the Board of Directors in the 2024 By-election. This report provides information on the overall nomination and election timeline.

An invitation for nominations for the vacant positions on the NSFM Board of Directors was circulated to the membership on January 15, 2024. This invitation for nominations was sent again on January 22, 24, 26, 29, 31, and February 2 by targeted Direct Mail and January 15, 22, and 29 in the Monday Memo. The NSFM webpage and posts on social media platforms (LinkedIn, Facebook, X, and Instagram) were also utilized. The deadline for nominations was February 5, 2024.

A voting period of February 26 to March 1 was advertised in the call for nominations. As shown by the following information on nominations received, no election will be necessary.

The By-Election Nominations Committee is composed of the following members:

- Mayor Brenda Chisholm-Beaton (Chair), Town of Port Hawkesbury
- Mayor Laurie Boucher, Town of Antigonish
- Councillor Eldon MacDonald, Cape Breton Regional Municipality
- Deputy Warden James Fuller, District of St. Mary's

Wesley Petite, NSFM Policy Advisor, served as Secretary for the Committee.

As of February 5, 2024, the Nominations Committee received the following nominations for the vacant Regional Representative positions on the 2023-2024 Board of Directors.

Region Representatives

Colchester/Cumberland/Pictou/East Hants Electoral Region:

Mayor Lennie White, Town of Westville

Valley Electoral Region:

Deputy Warden Brad Redden, Municipality of the County of Annapolis

Southwestern Shore Electoral Region:

No nominations received.

Pursuant to subsection 5 f) of the NSFM Elections Policy, no election is required as the number of nominations is the same as or less than the number of vacant Board positions in each Electoral Region. The above nominees are acclaimed to the Board of Directors for a term ending at the announcement of the results of the next regular election.
