UPCOMING AMANS' TRAINING AND EVENTS

We thought the AMANS' Workshops below would be of interest to our Members:

Leading in the Grey: Decision Making, Relationships and Innovation

This module is designed to improve leadership skills for Chief Administrative Officers (CAOs), Directors, Managers, Mayors/Wardens and Councillors. In this module participants will learn the definition of council/staff relations, gain awareness on why leadership is different in the municipal sector, and discuss what challenges municipal leaders face with innovation. This module will be facilitated by Mark Peck, Executive Director with the Province of Nova Scotia & Paul Kearley with Dale Carnegie Training. More information can be found on our website: <https://amans.ca/leadership-training.html>

November 29 & 30, 2018

Burnside Room, Delta Hotel, 240 Brownlow Ave, Dartmouth NS

Registration for the module can be found here | Room bookings can be made by calling the Delta Hotel at 1-888-890-3222 and referencing the Association of Municipal Administrators, NS to receive our group rate.

Financial Management for Elected Officials

Making budget priorities and understanding how to make strategic financial decisions are essential skills for all elected officials, whether they are in their first or tenth term. Our 2-day education module is designed to improve elected official's skills in budget review, financial decision making, and stakeholder communication by learning how to perform management duties related to financial matters and identify issues with financial statements and reports. More information can be found on our website:
