

How could municipalities
support community-scale renewable energy projects?

1. Dedicated land/infrastructure for renewable projects
2. Increased capacity through staff or prov-funded programs.
3. Improved communication + education within and between municipalities